New Russian Leadership

New Russian Leader same old lies. Now instead of a corrupt party they have a dictator bent on the destruction of the Russian people. All the while they spoke of peace for a war they started they planned a war on yet another neighbor.

To our Japanese brothers have no worries, they attacked Rumania and were beaten back, they attacked Finland and were beaten back, and they attacked Germany and have been beaten back and we are confident you will beat them back as well.

US Wakes Up?

Back in October the US congress stated that in January they will remove themselves from Churchill's war. It is now January time will tell if they are a puppet or a sovereign nation.

Norway Occupied

Large ground and airforces of the British Empire have been reported to occupy Norway and attempted to launch a massive strike into Germany. That attack was easily beaten back. This action can only be seen as an undeclared war by Norway on Germany and her allies

Prince of Whales Sunk

The German submarine fleet continue to operate throughout the Atlantic with little to no losses. The British battleship Prince of Whales was seen off the coast near Lisbon and attacked.

The high seas almost let the prey get away but that was not the case. Several torpedoes were seen to hit the ship and several secondary explosions could be heard even over the stormy weather.
